

Join us on Tuesday, October 18th at Room 12 in the Auditorium Building, MSU for a workshop with griot Boubacar Ndiaye and on Wednesday, October 19th at 6PM at the performance “Voyage Sans Visa” at Hillsdale College (free entrance). We are organizing transportation for students. Please contact Dr. Valentina Denzel at vdenzel@msu.edu for questions and to RSVP

- During the workshop, students will write and perform their own songs in French and in English with the help of the Senegalese griot Boubacar Ndiaye and his musicians. Ndiaye and his musicians will also sing and dance describing their experiences as immigrants. This event will be in French and English and accessible to Francophone and Non-Francophone speakers!
- During the performance “Voyage sans Visa” storyteller Boubacar Ndiaye and his two musicians describe the ups and downs of migration and question the place of the family left behind, of happiness, and of the success. They wonder: what does “undocumented” mean? Don’t we always come from somewhere? This event will be in French and Wolof, with French and English transcriptions, and accessible to Francophone and Non-Francophone speakers!
