ARTIST FACULTY BIO

Philip Sinder is professor of tuba and euphonium at Michigan State University College of Music. His students are found in performance and teaching positions throughout the United States and abroad and have won awards in numerous solo competitions. Sinder has performed with many leading ensembles, including the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Chicago Symphony, St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, Mariinsky Orchestra, and Houston Symphony. Since 1982, he has served as principal tuba with the Lansing Symphony Orchestra and is a founding member of the renowned Brass Band of Battle Creek. He has performed on over 20 large ensemble and brass quintet recordings, as well as his solo tuba recording, titled “Aerodynamics”. Sinder has authored publications available from Mountain Peak Music and the Indiana University Press. In 2009, Sinder was the recipient of the inaugural Withrow Excellence in Teaching Award at Michigan State University, and in 2017 he received the International Tuba Euphonium Association Excellence in Teaching Award. Since 2005, he has been a Valade Teaching Fellow at the Interlochen Arts Camp. Sinder holds degrees from Eastman School of Music and Wichita State University.
