Jean Lee, instructor & coordinator of string music education, MSU

MUS 891.072 - 2 credits

FALL 2024

MUS 891.072 - 2 credits

This course is intended for graduate level string majors. Its purpose is to familiarize students with principles, techniques, and materials of string pedagogy in the applied studio and beyond. The focus will be on teaching the young beginner and intermediate levels. Students will develop a repertoire of varied and effective teaching and rehearsal strategies, develop a scope and sequence for their teaching, and learn a modernized approach to the business of operating a private studio.

Tuesdays
