ARTIST-FACULTY BIOS

Suren Bagratuni, professor of cello at the MSU College of Music – winner of the Silver Medal at the 1986 International Tchaikovsky Competition while still a student at the Moscow Conservatory – has gone on to a distinguished international career as a soloist, recitalist and chamber musician. Born in Yerevan, Armenia, Professor Bagratuni began his musical education there at the age of six. After winning several national and international competitions, he continued his studies at the Moscow Conservatory and later in the United States, at the New England Conservatory of Music. Performing since age ten and as a soloist since age thirteen, he has appeared in solo recitals and as a soloist with all the major orchestras in the former Soviet Union, throughout Europe, North and South America, Asia, and South Africa. His chamber music appearances have included invitations to major festivals throughout North, South, and Central America, Europe, Asia, and Australia. Mr. Bagratuni has been invited to judge and chair in numerous international competitions such as Tchaikovsky, Isang Yun, and Khachaturian, to name a few. He has won critical acclaim for his recordings on several labels, and he is artistic director of MSU's Ken and Sandy Beall Cello Plus Chamber Music Festival, and founder of the International Music Academy in Todi, Italy.

Hae Won Jang holds the position of Instructor of Organ at the College of Music at Michigan State University and serves as a visiting instructor of Organ at the Interlochen Center for the Arts.

Her educational journey is marked by remarkable achievements, including the attainment of Doctor of Musical Arts and Master degrees in Piano Performance, all earned at Michigan State University. Furthermore, she possesses a Master of Music degree in Choral Conducting from the same institution. Currently, Hae Won is continuing her pursuit of musical excellence by working towards a Master of Music in Sacred Music and Harpsichord Performance at the University of Michigan.

Beyond her roles in academia, Hae Won has dedicated over a decade to her position as an Organist and Associate Music Director at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church and St. John Student Center Parish in East Lansing. Her contributions to the musical worship experience, performances in recitals, and the cultivation of a strong sense of community through music have been invaluable.

Michael Kroth, professor of bassoon and associate dean for undergraduate studies at the MSU College of Music, has earned a reputation as an excellent solo, chamber, and orchestral musician having performed in recitals and concerts throughout the U.S. and Germany. He served as principal bassoon with the South Dakota Symphony and Dakota Wind Quintet and has held positions as principal bassoonist with the Air Force Academy Band and the Colorado Springs Symphony Orchestra. Kroth is principal bassoon with the Lansing Symphony Orchestra, a faculty artist at the Colorado College Summer Music Festival, and at the Peninsula Music Festival (Door County, WI). He performs regularly with the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and the Cleveland Orchestra. He has also performed with the Trenton Symphony, the Colorado Ballet, and the Philadelphia Orchestra. He earned his Bachelor degree in bassoon performance from Ithaca College and a Master of Music in from Temple University. He has released recordings on the Sound Works, Ultrasound, AFSC, and HCS labels.

Grammy Award-winning violinist Yvonne Lam has appeared as a soloist with such renowned orchestras as the Los Angeles Philharmonic, the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, the Pacific Symphony, the Auckland Philharmonia, and the American Youth Symphony. She was the violinist/violist and Co-Artistic Director of contemporary super-ensemble Eighth Blackbird for eight years, and commissioned and premiered major works by composers such as Steve Reich, David Lang, Nico Muhly, and Bryce Dessner. In addition to winning top prizes at international competitions including the Michael Hill World Violin Competition, the Liana Issakadze Violin Competition, and the Holland-America Music Society Competition, Ms. Lam served three seasons as Assistant Concertmaster of the Washington National Opera Orchestra. Ms. Lam is now an Assistant Professor of Violin and Coordinator of Chamber Music at Michigan State University. She received her Bachelor of Music from the Curtis Institute of Music and her Master of Music from the Juilliard School

Nermis Mieses is faculty at Michigan State University and the Sewanee Summer Music Festival. Formerly, she taught at Bowling Green State University, performed as Principal Oboe of the Detroit Opera, and served as Chair of the IDRS Gillet-Fox International Competition for Oboe. Her artistry has been recognized by the University of Michigan Paul Boylan Alumni Award, the Barbirolli International Oboe Competition, the First International Oboe Competition of FEMUSC, and others. She is an active competition juror, recitalist, and masterclass presenter in America and abroad. She has performed with Sphinx, Chineke!, Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and several regional orchestras in Ohio and Michigan. Her debut album, “Oboe in Hues”, features solo oboe pieces by French oboist-composer Gilles Silvestrini. In her native country of Puerto Rico, she earned a BM from the Conservatory of Music. Her MM and DMA degrees are from the University of Michigan under Nancy Ambrose King.

Deborah Moriarty is professor of piano and chair of the piano area at the Michigan State University College of Music, where she is a recipient of the Distinguished Faculty Award. A Massachusetts native, she made her debut with the Boston Symphony Orchestra at age eleven. She has also served on the piano faculty at the New England Conservatory of Music and the University of Lowell.

Moriarty attended the Curtis Institute of Music, the Juilliard School, and the New England Conservatory of Music, where she received her Master of Music degree with honors. She has studied with Russell Sherman, Theodore Lettvin, and Beveridge Webster.

An active recitalist and soloist with orchestras throughout the eastern United States, she has also performed in Belgium, Japan, Colombia, Mexico, and the Soviet Union. Moriarty is a founding member of the Fontana Ensemble of Michigan, and as an advocate of new music, has participated in numerous premiere performances including Milton Babbitt’s “Whirled Series” at Merkin Hall in New York City. She has recordings on the Crystal and CRI labels.

Tigran Shiganyan is an internationally acclaimed conductor, violinist, educator, and producer whose career spans North America, Europe, and Asia. In 2024, he received The American Prize – Ernst Bacon Memorial Award for excellence in American music performance. He is a laureate of numerous international competitions, including the William C. Byrd Young Artists Competition, Pittsburgh Symphony Concerto Competition, Palma D'Oro (Italy), and the IMKA International Conducting Competition (Bosnia and Herzegovina).

Born into a musical family, Dr. Shiganyan is the son of composer Dilorom Saidaminova. He graduated with highest honors from the V. Uspensky Music School and the Tashkent State Conservatory, and later earned a Master of Music and Artist Diploma from Duquesne University. He holds a Doctor of Musical Arts from Michigan State University, becoming the first Uzbek musician to earn a U.S. doctoral degree in musical performance.

His mentors include Dr. Robert Cameron and Prof. Leon Gregorian (conducting), and Dmitri Berlinsky, Emanuel Borok, Charles Stegeman, and Vladimir Ioudenitch (violin). He also studied chamber music with Irina Zheleznova, Misha Quint, and Randolph Kelly.

Dr. Shiganyan has premiered works by his mother and other composers, and introduced American composers such as Bernstein, Adams, Williams, and Liebermann to Central Asian audiences. His cultural diplomacy has brought leading American musicians to Uzbekistan for concerts and masterclasses.

He has performed with the National Symphony Orchestra of Uzbekistan, Kazakh State Symphony, Missouri Symphony, Philharmonisches Kammerorchester Berlin, Madrid Soloists Chamber Orchestra, and others. His discography includes Journey to France, Post Scriptum, and recordings of Lowell Liebermann's Violin Concerto and Chamber Concertos, featuring Aiman Mussakhajayeva and the composer at the piano.
