VICTORY FOR MSU

BANDS

Six College of Music bands, including the Wind Symphony and the Spartan Marching Band, perform the full spectrum of wind music including chamber, contemporary, and traditional repertoire. In total, Wind Symphony, Symphony Band, Concert Band, and Campus Band present twenty concerts during the academic year with some adding national performances.

CHOIRS

Eight College of Music Choral groups perform secular and sacred music in all styles and genres representing many eras and cultures. University Chorale features top graduate and undergraduate singers in the college, and auditioned choirs State Singers and the women's chamber ensemble Mosaic focus on a wide range of traditional and contemporary repertoire. Featured in many campus settings and outside major functions each year, choirs include glee clubs and a community chorus.

ORCHESTRAS

The Symphony Orchestra maintains a schedule of six orchestral performances, two full opera productions, and a holiday program each season. The Concert Orchestra, open to students, staff, and faculty from all corners of the university as well as the greater Lansing community, presents four concerts per year. Both ensembles choose repertoire from the well-established orchestral canon and new works by living composers, and both require an audition for participation.

JAZZ ENSEMBLES

Jazz ensembles include three big bands, each made up of 18 members, playing the repertoire of the great jazz masters as well as a wide range of soul, swing, blues, and gospel. The four nonets are nine-piece ensembles that blend the sounds of big band with small group performance. There are also multiple jazz combos with varying number of members that increase the number of performance opportunities.

MUSIQUE 21

Musique 21 is a project-based group of musicians with flexible instrumentation. Focusing on innovative presentations of new work utilizing a variety of media including theatre, film, and movement, this adventurous troupe pushes the envelope of 21st century performance.

MSU OPERA THEATRE

Each season, MSU Opera Theatre presents two fully staged and costumed productions with the orchestra. Opera productions are presented in Fairchild Theatre, bringing audiences a close theatrical experience with stellar acoustics. MSU productions have taken top prize within their divisions for the National Opera Association's college competition.

STUDENT LIFE

This is a living-learning community, meaning students live and work closely to each other, adjacent to the music facilities, supporting artistic and personal growth and bringing joy during the rigors of music study.

- Easy to-and-from practice and rehearsal facilities while living among others keeping a similar schedule
- Students enjoy the impromptu music-making opportunities the living environment inspires

An abundance of student organizations, within and outside of music, that allow for an inclusive and fulfilling student experience.

- Student-created, student-run groups specific to Music

- More than 1,000 registered student organizations function on campus with most open to all students
